Drugo More

Drugo More – Other Sea is a non profit organisation that produces, promotes, researches and disseminates culture.

Working as an organisation in the field of arts and culture since 1999 – locally, regionally, internationally and interdisciplinary – they identify and explore topics of social relevance and of general interest to the community. Understanding art as an important cognitive tool, they connect their artistic programme with topics relevant to contemporary science and social theory.

At the core of their various activities is the creation and facilitation of exchange between local and international artists, students and audience, which includes running a year-round gallery programme, production of works and events in the field of visual and performing arts, research in the field of culture, and the organisation of participatory and educational events such as conferences, workshops, lectures and seminars.
