Hahn Film

With classical 2D animation using pencil and paper as well as with CGI productions, Hahn Film strives to achieve a high quality standard.

Hahn Film produces animated films, commercials, music video clips and computer games. Hahn Film controls the entire value-added production process: the selection of subjects and development of themes by its in-house development department, design, key layouts, key BGs and postproduction in Berlin; animation, ink & paint and compositing at its own studio in Saigon.
