International Festival Theatre

International Festival Theatre – Mezinárodní festival Divadlo presents a showcase of the Czech theatre, to introduce the most outstanding and remarkable foreign productions together with a selection of Czech productions.

The aims of the festival are:

- To present a showcase of Czech theatre
- To introduce outstanding and remarkable international productions together with a selection of Czech productions, focusing on a wide range of topics and forms (drama, musical, dance, puppet or street theatre)
- To offer a platform where Czech professional theatre meets top international productions, in particular from European countries; to acquaint the Czech audience, including both theatre professionals and spectators, with the latest trends in the European and world theatre, and thus to contribute to our closer integration into the European structures.
- To create a space where theatre professionals can meet and exchange their experience

The festival is working internationally, particularly with countries of the Visegrad Agreement but also with other European countries.
