ITFF
International Thai Film Festival
www.thaifilmfestival.com

International Thai Film Festival (ITFF) is an internationally recognised film industry event and registered international film festival of Thailand that holds its film screenings and networking events annually in Bangkok.

ITFF is for filmmakers, film and entertainment industry professionals, content creators, artists, film students and movie enthusiasts alike. ITFF aims to build a bridge between independent filmmakers and the public. The official language of ITFF is English. ITFF showcases and awards the very best of Thai and International productions and artists.

ITFF and its film competition were founded by Siam Entertainment Group (2018-), managed by Penpak (2021-2023) and the live events are organised by Ace36 Media (2023-) with the aim of supporting the Thai film and entertainment industry and talented filmmakers, content creators and artists. With the widest international reach in the region, the team of industry professionals provides their extensive industry knowledge, experience and connections to ensure ITFF will be one of the most significant film industry event and content market in Southeast Asia.

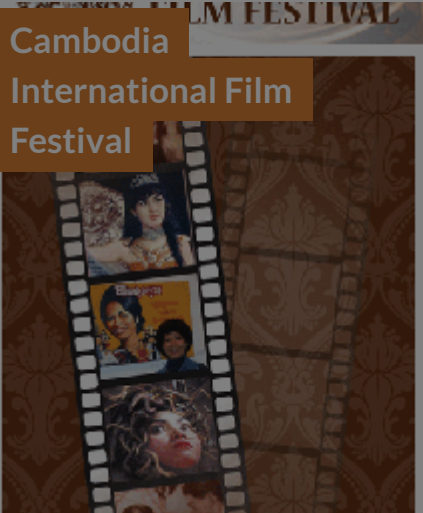

ITFF Film Competition is for industry professionals and amateurs alike, who are passionate about filmmaking and wish to screen their work on a big screen and compete for ITFF Awards to gain a wider recognition and reputation in the industry. Filmmakers can submit their works from anywhere in the world to compete for awards and prizes.

ITFF Events are an international film screening event and film entertainment industry expo. Alongside screenings of a wide variety of films from around the world, there are panel talks, networking opportunities, a market to allow everyone to get an insight and build their knowledge of the industry, make connections, share the passion for film and filmmaking, and present the prestigious ITFF Awards.
