Istituto Italiano di Cultura a Zagabria

Istituto Italiano di Cultura a Zagabria / Italian Cultural Institute acts as an official representation of the Italian state with the task of promoting and disseminating Italian language and culture in Croatia.

The Institute organises cultural events aimed at facilitating the exchange of ideas related to the arts and sciences. One of the Institute's main tasks is organising courses in the Italian language, which are led by native speakers in collaboration with language schools based in Zagreb. The Institute also holds a library, which includes books, CDs, DVDs, magazines and daily press dedicated to the Italian culture.
