Kanazawa Film Commission

Kanazawa is a classic, coastal Japanese castle town that exudes charm, beauty and history. The capital of Ishikawa prefecture with a population of 460,000, Kanazawa -- with over 400 years free from war and natural disasters -- today stands authentic and intact. The Commission provides assistance in Filming Location Research, Cross-cultural and linguistic assistance, Local Recruiting, and Permit Application. This city is known for its hot springs and beaches.
