Kitakyushu Film Commission

The Kitakyushu Film Commission was established on 27 September 2000, with the aim of strengthening the regional economy and gathering film related industries in the medium and long term, through providing services for filming of movies, television dramas, travel programs, television commercials etc. The City of Kitakyushu is a crossroad of the past, present and future. Contact the Kitakyushu Film Commission when designing your filming plans and when in search of locations. The Commission will provide full assistance in actual filming, including arrangement of locations and safety measures.
