Magmart Festival

Magmart is a cultural association that organises the international video art festival and special projects in the field of videoart. Throughout the years, they have built an international network of partners and collaborators, but they're always on the lookout to find new ones, to enlarge the network. Their mission is to spread video art worldwide, to promote international exchange between video artists and help their work, to bring video art into public institutions, and to work on research on audiovisual languages.
