Ministère De La Communauté Française De Belgique

The Ministère De La Communauté Française De Belgique, the French federal community in Belgium provides support to the film and audio-visual sector through Centre Du Cinéma Et De l'Audiovisuel. The Centre is responsible for supporting the production and promotion of audio-visual works; to promote a sustainable production industry; to assist independent producers in working with local television companies; to assist them in accessing European funding mechanisms and international co-productions. It provides production funding support for feature films, documentaries, short films and television series.
