Osaka European Film Festival

Held yearly in November in Osaka, Japan

Osaka European Film Festival (OEFF) is one of the few, if not the only, European film festivals outside Europe and has been organized by an independent NPO since 1994. OEFF once again confirmed its position as the major European film event in Asia with its ever-growing number of admissions from the public. It is a unique opportunity for European films to benefit from an exceptional exposure on Japanese and Asian markets.

Categories: Short and feature films

Formats: contact the festival for details

Awards: Osaka City Prize for Life Time Achievement
