Promoting intercultural dialogue in migratory and refugee crisis | new
EU report

The new report from the European Commission, Directorate-General for Education, Youth, Sport and Culture on how culture & the arts can promote intercultural dialogue in migratory & refugee crisis is now available! The report is produced by a working group of EU Member States experts on intercultural dialogue under the European agenda for culture work plan for culture 2015-2018

How culture and the arts can promote intercultural dialogue in the context of the migratory and refugee crisis

Report with case studies, by the working group of EU Member States' experts on intercultural dialogue in the context of the migratory and refugee crisis under the open method of coordination.

In the context of the migratory and refugee crisis, explore the ways culture and the arts can help to bring individuals and peoples together, increase their participation in cultural and societal life as well as to promote intercultural dialogue and cultural diversity. Links will be established with other EU-level integration networks and databases. Experts will take stock of the policies and existing good practices on intercultural dialogue with a special focus on the integration of migrants and refugees in societies through the arts and culture.

The book is available as a free download from the EU Bookshop
