Radu Stanca National Theatre

Radu Stanca National Theatre is the largest and the most important establishment of performing arts in Sibiu, Romania and their shows were invited to the most important festivals of the world.

Radu Stanca National Theatre together with Sibiu International Theatre Festival created SPAOM – Sibiu Performing Arts Open Market (only in Central and Southeastern Europe), the theatre school and the cultural management school of the Lucian Blaga University of Sibiu. It became one of the most important platforms for creativity, dialogue and mobility of artists from around the world. Responding to all contemporary challenges, Radu Stanca National Theatre performances try to capture the diversity of trends in performing arts, from tradition, word and image, and going to installations, theatre, dance, music shows, and so on.
