The Ray and Diana Harryhausen Foundation

The Ray & Diana Harryhausen Foundation is a charitable Trust set up by Ray on the 10th April 1986. It is the primary aim of the Foundation to protect Ray's name and body of work as well as archiving, preserving and restoring Ray's extensive collection.

In addition the Foundation is firmly committed to show and exhibit, for educational and entertainment purposes, all of Ray's unique collection which includes the short films as well as his feature productions.

Since Ray's death on the 7th May 2013, and the acquisition of all of Ray's entire Collection by the Foundation, the Trustees are committed to continuing Ray's hopes for the future and protecting and conserving Ray's name and his unique reputation and contribution to world film history.

It is estimated that there are in excess of 50,000 items in the collection, including original armatured models, hard rubber stand-in models, armatures, original moulds, original artwork, original miniatures, stills, negatives, original equipment, paperwork, screenplays, various test and dailies footage, books and many influences, such as paintings and lithographs by Gustav Dore, John Martin and Willis O'Brien.
