Sae Institute Malaysia

Established in 1992, SAE Malaysia is the second institute within SAE's international network to be setup in Asia. It was setup as Malaysia's premiere audio engineering training institute that later diversified into general media technology education.

SAE Malaysia offers various higher educational programs within the fields of Creative Media, Digital Film Making and Audio Engineering. Students enjoy studying in a highly dynamic educational environment, with well developed international programs, that are taught by specialized industry lecturers.

The Media Technology Diploma is an intensive and comprehensive qualification that covers all aspects of Creative Media, Audio Technology and Digital Film Making. The content and structure encourages students to learn the theoretical background of the topics covered and to apply their knowledge to the production process with a high standard of creativity and technical ability. Upon successful completion of Diploma in Media Technology; graduates will have the option to major in either one of the three main BA programs:

- BA (Hons) in Recoding Arts
- BA (Hons) in Creative Media Arts
- BA (Hons) in Digital Film Arts
