Sangeet4All

Sangeet4All serves schools and families throughout India by providing music curriculum grounded in Indian classical music with a global outlook.

Sangeet4All is the first Indian music curriculum with a carefully researched pedagogy, methodology and resources that provides the young child with a solid foundation in music. This age-appropriate nursery to grade 5, multi-sensory curriculum empowers and encourages both children as well as teachers, bringing children closer to their rich cultural heritage and sowing the seed of life-long love for music. S4A is based on the philosophy that all children are musical and deserve to engage in a fun way with their cultural heritage. The S4A music curriculum is designed to best suit the Indian sensibilities and the realities of Indian classrooms.

World-renowned Indian classical artists Pt. Shubhendra Rao and Vidushi Saskia Rao-de Haas developed the Sangeet4All curriculum. Pt.

Shubhendra Rao is one of India's leading musicians today. A leading disciple of Pt. Ravi Shankar, he is one of the last few to have learnt his art in the true Guru Shishya Parampara. Dutch cellist Vidushi Saskia Rao-de Haas started learning the Cello at a young age in Western classical music tradition and later, studied Indian classical music with Pt. Hariprasad Chaurasia. Today she is established as a master of Indian music on the cello. Their unique combined knowledge in music training and music education is how Sangeet4All was born, the ideal way to teach the age-old Indian music concepts through internationally tested music pedagogy to children.

The S4A curriculum includes original songs, stories and activities for introducing beginner to advanced musical concepts of Indian music in a way that is appropriate for early childhood education. The curriculum is in line with the guidelines of CBSE for primary performing arts education.
