四禧美術館
SIXI MUSEUM

Sixi Museum is a non-profit art institution based on three founders' art collections and artistic ideals. It integrates the functions of collection, exhibition, academic research and public education.

Since its inauguration in 2023, Sixi, a fresh stream of blood in the art ecology of the Yangtze River Delta Region of China, has been offering unique artistic activities to the public with professionalism and inventiveness. It attaches great importance to collaborating with young artists from home and abroad. Through multicultural interactions, Sixi is exploring the sustainable development of contemporary art, committed to creating a friendly and intriguing new sphere for culture and arts. Through versatile art programmes like exhibitions and artist residency, Sixi is looking forward to growing together with the public, wishing to make its contributions to the international cultural exchanges in Nanjing and the diversified development of the art ecology in contemporary China.
