Focus on short films competition

Thai Short Film and Video Festival started in 1997 aiming to encourage to independent spirit to expose their hidden creativity. It is a local short film and video competition in conjunction with screening selected short films from several contras. With in five years, the number of entries increases from 30 to 150.creating the dynamic atmosphere for the microscopic Thai film culture. It is organized by the Thai Film Foundation, a non-profit organization, established in 1994 by film activists to promote the film culture in Thailand.

Thai Film Foundation has continuous supporting short film since 1997 to provide a platform for independent filmmaking in Thailand, for the purpose of promoting the awareness of the film community here. Also, to stimulate and provide a strong inspiration to emerging filmmakers.
