Vandenende Foundation

The VandenEnde Foundation aims to give both talented young people and established artists development opportunities, to encourage participation in culture and the arts and to stimulate cultural enterprises.

The VandenEnde Foundation makes financial contributions to support artistic and art education projects and those activities that are not eligible for full subsidies from public funds or organizations. The emphasis is on originality, marketing and reaching a broad audience.

Financial support or otherwise is given to organizations and projects that aim to promote art and/or knowledge, including but not solely, stage and other art forms and to support to people who are active in the field of art and/or knowledge.
